RedTail Mountain
Mountain City, Tennessee
Architect: Foley Design Associates

We have great things in store for this development including clubhouse renovation, golf course improvements, new home site sales, condominium and other lodging construction, and the development of a "lake club" property.

This picturesque mountain course is located 31 miles from I-81. RedTail Mountain is one of Tennessee's premier golf courses. A visit to RedTail Mountain will assure you an unforgettable round of golf on an 18-hole course with many different types of golf shots and spectacular views to match.
